

QUESTIONS about YOU with a bit of Grammar...

Before you answer these questions identify the auxiliary verb and then the tense/aspect of each question:

- Ⓜ What do you do?
- Ⓜ How long have you been working here?
- Ⓜ Why are you learning English?
- Ⓜ How are you going to continue to improve/practice your English after this lesson finishes?
- Ⓜ If the English teacher gives you some homework, will you do it?
- Ⓜ What were you doing just before you came to this lesson?
- Ⓜ What are you doing this weekend?
- Ⓜ When did you last speak English?
 - Who was the conversation with?
 - Where/What was the situation?
 - How did it go?
- Ⓜ Have you ever been to the UK or any other English-speaking country?
- Ⓜ What do you like doing in your free time?

QUESTIONS about YOU with a bit of Grammar...

Before you answer these questions identify the auxiliary verb and then the tense/aspect of each question:

- Ⓜ What do you do?
- Ⓜ How long have you been working here?
- Ⓜ Why are you learning English?
- Ⓜ How are you going to continue to improve/practice your English after this lesson finishes?
- Ⓜ If the English teacher gives you some homework, will you do it?
- Ⓜ What were you doing just before you came to this lesson?
- Ⓜ What are you doing this weekend?
- Ⓜ When did you last speak English?
 - Who was the conversation with?
 - Where/What was the situation?
 - How did it go?
- Ⓜ Have you ever been to the UK or any other English-speaking country?
- Ⓜ What do you like doing in your free time?